A word from the Administrator

As we welcome December, I want to extend warm greetings to our residents and families. This season reminds us of the importance of connection, and I'm grateful for your ongoing support. I'm also pleased to announce that our construction project is now complete. Thank you for your patience throughout the process—our refreshed spaces are already enhancing daily life at Oakview. As we close out the year, please know we remain committed to providing excellent care and a welcoming environment for all.

Wishing you a safe and joyful December.

Warm regards,

Jannice Lamm, Oakview Administrator

Annual Resident Christmas Bazaar

Residents have been hard at work in the activity room the past few months, working on items to sell at the Christmas Bazaar. The bazaar is open to all visitors, residents, and staff.

Money raised supports resident activities.

Place: OMCF Activity Room
Date: Wednesday, December 11th
Time: 2:30pm-3:30pm

Mindful Purchasing

Please be mindful when purchasing gifts for loved ones. Keep in mind these 2 questions.

- 1) Size of item– will it appropriately fit in the room?
- 2) Amount– Is this too much for one person?

Toys for Tots

A Barrel has been placed in the front lobby of Oakview for placement of donated toys. Please join us in providing children with gifts for Christmas.

Labeling New Belongings

If you are bringing in new belongings for your loved one that will need to be labeled –

Please ensure that these items are dropped off at the nurses' station to ensure they are documented and labeled accordingly.

Christmas Decorating

Things to keep in mind when decorating your loved ones room.

1. No extension cords or power strips!
2. No real trees or wreaths– Potted plants are ok
3. Decorations are allowed in resident rooms in moderation
4. Do not hang anything from the ceiling or walls over the bed.

Resident Right

Every month, we will include one of the Resident Rights or Responsibilities as written in Oakview's "Residents Rights and Responsibilities" Policy. We want our residents and their families to know these important Resident Rights and Responsibilities. If you should have any questions about any of these, please don't hesitate to ask.

G. Information and Communication

(4) The resident has the right to receive notices orally (meaning spoken) and in writing (including Braille) in a format and language he or she understands, including;

- (i) Required notices as specified in this section. The facility must furnish to each resident a written description of legal rights which includes
 - (A) A description of the manner or protecting personal funds, under paragraph (f)(10) of this section.
